

Password protection of documentation by selected UN organizations

UN specialized agency	Password protection	Comments
International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO)	No	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Click on "Publications" link on left-hand side. – Click on desired link below "Free Publications". ("ICAO Doc Series" – unprotected access to documents.)
International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD)	No	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Click on "Documents & publications" link on bar at top. – On the left-hand side of the page, choose the appropriate governing body, then select the session and document.
International Labour Organization (ILO)	No	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Click on "Publications and research" under "What we do" on right-hand side. – Click on "Official reports" on left-hand side. – Click on desired session and documents.
International Maritime Organization (IMO)	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Click on "About IMO" at the top of the page. – Click on "Conference (Meetings and Documents)". – Click on "IMODOCS" to reach the Authority/Username/Password site.
International Telecommunication Union (ITU)	Yes
United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO)	No	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Click on "Communication and Information" on top of home page. – Click on "Official documents" on right-hand side. Access to strategy documents, meeting documents and programme documents.
United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO)	No	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – "As the leading international organization in the field of tourism, the World Tourism Organization undertakes large projects of research, analysis and data gathering within a variety of different segments and regions ... These results are regularly released in numerous publications and provide a valuable and reliable source of information. Though UNWTO regularly sends one copy of all publication to its 150 member states, it is the organization's objective to share all the achieved knowledge and information with a wider public." – "Otherwise, publications can be purchased online, or an application (with certain requirements) must be filled out to access the depository library."
World Health Organization (WHO)	No	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Click on "Publications" link on left-hand side. – Click on "Governance of WHO" link on right-hand side. – Select the body whose documents and reports you wish to view.

UN specialized agency	Password protection	Comments
World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO)	No	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Click on "Resources for: Delegates" on left-hand side. – Includes a tool for "searching meetings and documents". – Enter document or meeting information, and the site automatically makes a search.
World Meteorological Organization (WMO)	Yes (and No)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Click on "Meetings" on left-hand side. – Click on "Constituent body sessions". – Select "Available documents" to view the desired documents. However: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Click on "Publications" on left-hand side. – Click on "Mandatory publications". – Click on "request form" and type in "wmo" for username and "publications" for password. – Fill out form for each request.